

Information for HDR Applicants in Classical Studies

We welcome applications for all qualified applicants, whose interests connect with our staff. You can find out more about the Centre for Classical Studies and our staff research expertise here: <https://slll.cass.anu.edu.au/centre-classical-studies>

If you would like to apply to undertake an MPhil or a PhD, please see the information below on how to go about it.

In order to consider you for admission, we would like to see:

- a full academic CV
- a full transcript of undergraduate and Hons / MRes / MPhil results in Classical Studies, Ancient History, or related disciplines
- a writing sample (e.g. chapter of Hons / MRes / MPhil thesis) of between 5,000–10,000 words
- a 1,000-word research proposal

Once this material has been received, you will be invited to an informal conversation about the application and the Classics programme at ANU with the HDR Convenor, the Head of Discipline and / or the provisional supervisor. This is for you to get more information about the programme and for us to understand better how to help you achieve your research goals.

Important Dates

International applicants: the above materials must be received by July 1 for entry the following year. (University application closing date: August 31)

Domestic applicants: the above materials must be received by August 1 for entry the following year. (University application closing date: October 31)

Please send all materials to Dr Estelle Strazdins at HDRconvenor.Classics@anu.edu.au

Please note that PhD candidates are expected to spend 18-months on campus spread over the lifetime of the PhD. This is so you can be involved in campus life and our research culture, especially the Centre for Classical Studies' Wednesday research seminars and other one-off research seminars and workshops, as well as engage in tutoring, marking, or other teaching-related and career-development activities when available.
