

SLLL GRADUATE CONFERENCE 2015

Program

HRC CONFERENCE ROOM

MILGATE ROOM

9

MICHELLE ALMIRÓN

(PhD Final Oral Presentation)

Beyond the aesthetics and social contextualisation of José Hernández's Martín Fierro: an unmasking of the myth of the literary creator

10

Morning tea

10.30

VANESSA FANNING

(PhD Final Oral Presentation)

Capturing Voice and Place in Translation:

The translation of three twentieth-century French writers steeped in the landscape, mores, traditions and language of the south of France

11:30

TANIA EVANS

(PhD Thesis Proposal Review)

Cripples, Bastards, And Broken Things:

Masculinities in George R. R. Martin's A Song of Ice and Fire (Game of Thrones)

MATTHEW CALLAGHAN

(PhD Mid-Term Review)

Language change in a changing society: a real and apparent time study of the Chilean second-person singular pre and post Pinochet (1973-1990)

GIAN MARCO FARESE

(PhD Mid-Term Review)

Mi scusi, Professore, Excuse me, Professor: the cultural semantics of selected forms of address in English and Italian

12:30

Lunch

1:30

KATHERINE COX

(PhD Thesis Proposal Review)

'Humanity' in Crisis: A posthuman reading of 21st century zombie and superhero narratives

YUNSEOK LEE

(PhD Thesis Proposal Review)

Evidentiality in Korean: A corpus-based study

2:30

Afternoon tea

3

BIANCA WILLIAMS

(PhD Thesis Proposal Review)

From Redstockings to Reconciliation:

A Transnational Feminist Study of Pregnancy Belly Casting Practices

CAROLE HORN

(MPhil Thesis Proposal Review)

Australian and New Zealand Englishes:

A comparative study of 19th Century rural terminology

4

PRESENTATIONS

- SLLL students' highlights & achievements in 2015 (HDR Convenor, Dr Manuel Delicado)
- SLLL in 2015 (Head of School, Prof Catherine Travis)
- Looking ahead for the HRC (Director of the Humanities Research Centre, Prof William Christie)

5

Celebratory drinks...